

Shizuko Mori, Vice President, Finance

Pro-Mozart Society of Atlanta

Shizuko was born in Shanghai. She developed a passion for music and art during her early school years and studied Japanese literature at renowned universities in Shanghai and Tokyo. After coming to the United States, she pursued a career in accounting, and is currently a Tax Managing Director at KPMG.

Now that her children have gone to college, Shizuko and her husband Alex, have been keen to contribute to the classical music community in Atlanta. She is excited to support Pro Mozart. Pro Mozart is most pleased to have her join our organization and share her financial expertise with our organization.
